

	Autumn 1	Autumn 2	Spring 1	Spring 2	Summer 1	Summer 2
7	Ancient Greece: Language Development	The Development of the Roman Empire	Anglo-Saxon and Viking England	Norman England	Tudors: Change and Continuity	The English Civil War
8	The Development of Medicine from Ancient history to the modern day	Crime and Punishment throughout history	Power to the People: A History of Protest	The Development of the British Empire	The Development of Birmingham: Medieval to Industrial	Causes and Consequences of WW1
9	Weimar Germany	Nazi Germany and the Holocaust	Tsarist and Communist Russia	Communism across the world	Post WW2 Britain	Conflict between East and West: 1979 - 2021
10	Chunk 1 USA: 1920s Chunk 2 Migration: Invaders Chunk 3 C & T: Korea	Chunk 4: Tudor England: Young Elizabeth Chunk 5 USA Red Scare	Chunk 6 Migration: English Identity Chunk 7 C & T: Ending the Korean War	Chunk 8: Elizabeth – Marriage and Succession Chunk 9 USA: 1930s	Chunk 10 Migration: Expansion of Empire Chunk 11 C & T: Vietnam	Chunk 12 : Elizabeth – Religious Threat Revision
11	Chunk 13 USA: WW2 and the 1950s Chunk 14 Migration: The Empire Chunk 15 C&T: Vietnam 1968	Chunk 16 Elizabeth: Golden Age – Historic Environment Chunk 17 USA – Civil Rights and Women’s Rights	Chunk 18 Migration – End of Empire Chunk 19 C&T: Ending the Vietnam War Chunk 20 : Elizabeth – Poverty in England	Chunk 21 Migration – Post Empire Revision

Rationale: The purpose of history is to allow pupils to develop knowledge about how the world in which they live has been created but also to consider history as a narrative; critically engaging with the source material they have access to, in order to judge which versions of the historical construct they are convinced by. In honing these skills, pupils will be better equipped to navigate the complex media world they are now exposed to.