Dear Parent/Carer

The Department for Education has mandated the delivery of statutory guidance for Relationships, Sex, and Health Education (RSHE). This, along with other important areas such as RE and Careers, forms part of our 'Learning for Life' curriculum, which is integrated across all key stages through assemblies, form time activities, curriculum days or PSHE lessons.

For detailed information regarding our RSHE Policy and an overview of the provision for each year group, please visit our website: <https://tgbs.co.uk/policies/>. This content is essential and plays a significant role in our school's provision. Parental guidance can also be accessed here: https://assets.publishing.service.gov.uk/government/uploads/system/uploads/attachment_data/file/907640/RSE_secondary_schools_guide_for_parents.pdf

In addition to our curriculum, we also welcome visitors and guest speakers to enrich the program further. If you, as a parent, have any feedback, questions, or concerns about our policy or program, please don't hesitate to contact us at postbox@tgbs.co.uk

Furthermore, you can explore various aspects of our personal development initiatives at Turves Green Boys' School on our website through the following link: <https://tgbs.co.uk/personal-development/>

We strive to cover all statutory topics while also adapting to the needs of our students to ensure that our curriculum is up to date, responsive and relevant.

Yours faithfully
